Hardware Submissions (WHQL)

Receiving this e-mail means that your test logs have passed review.

IMPORTANT: Please read the test report carefully. Even though the submission has passed, the test report may include warnings that could affect future submissions. To view the test report, sign in to <https://winqual.microsoft.com>, click View & Manage in the left navigation, and click the submission number.

If you submitted your application or system for the "Compatible" designation the submission process is complete and your product will appear soon in the Windows Catalog.

If you submitted your product for the "Designed for Microsoft® Windows®" logo, you must complete a few more steps to be licensed to use the logo, and, if you choose, to add your product to the Microsoft

Windows Catalog.

1. Accept the master Designed for Microsoft Windows Logo License Agreement. To see if you have accepted this agreement, account administrators can sign in to <https://winqual.microsoft.com>, click Account Administration in the top navigation, and click Legal Agreements.
2. Run the product listing wizard. To run the wizard, sign in to <https://winqual.microsoft.com>, click View & Manage in the left navigation, click the submission number, and click the Start Product Listing Wizard button.

IMPORTANT: In the Wizard, you must accept Exhibit 3 to the Logo License Agreement. Your product is not licensed to use the logo until you accept Exhibit 3.

3. If your submission contained drivers, you can download your signature files on Winqual. To download, sign in to <https://winqual.microsoft.com>, click View & Manage in the left navigation, and click the submission number.

NOTE: To download the artwork for the "Designed for Windows" logo, an account administrator can sign in to <https://winqual.microsoft.com>, click Account Administration in the top navigation, and click Logo Artwork.

Software Application Submissions
